The Daily Quote

"Sen. Bob Corker [R-TN] is holding up a much-awaited GOP budget deal, barring Republican leadership and top budget negotiators Monday night from filing the agreement that was weeks in the making... Rumors are running wild among budget followers both on and off the Hill that it could be related to his objections to provisions in the budget that boost Pentagon spending without offsets, allow appropriators to use a budget trick he abhors... The agreement that has yet to be released publicly is said to use a war fund account to circumvent budget caps and give the Pentagon a $38 billion raise. Corker has told POLITICO previously that the ploy is a budget 'gimmick.' 'To me the [overseas contingency account] piece, I hate to be too pejorative, it's really a slush fund.'"
